SEUDO-LEGAL MOVEMENTS AND COMMERCIAL FALLACIES

Analysis of the World Martial Authority, Govinda Tidball, Anna von Reitz, Brandon J. Williams, Robin Hood, Peoples Court of Albion, Common Law Court and Fictitious Jurisdictions

1. Executive Summary

Ecclesia Law has identified a consistent pattern of failure among movements that attempt to defeat statutory jurisdiction from within. These groups, including the World Martial Authority (WMA), Robin Hood, Anna von Reitz, and Brandon J. Williams, rely on a fundamental misunderstanding of agency and legal personhood. Their strategies—ranging from filing "global liens" to establishing "Aboriginal Courts"—consistently result in severe legal retaliation and financial ruin.

2. The "Corporate Government" and Agency Fallacy

Pseudo-legal groups frequently argue that because a human is distinct from their "body corporate" (the registered name), they can refuse to pay debts or ignore court orders.

- Mainstream Reality: While natural and artificial persons are distinct, statutory jurisdiction attaches to the artificial person (the "persona" or "registered identity") regardless of the natural person's consent.
- The Doctrine of Persons: English law recognizes both natural persons (living human beings) and artificial persons (legal constructs like corporations or estates). This distinction is used to facilitate commerce and administration, not to provide an "opt-out" from the rule of law.
- The Risks: Individuals attempting to "sever agency" through DIY affidavits or common-law notices do not rebut the legal presumption of agency. Instead, they often find themselves labeled as "executors de son tort"—unauthorized intermeddlers who become personally liable for the very debts they seek to avoid.

3. Alleged Courts: Fictitious Jurisdictions

A central tactic of these groups is the creation of unrecognised "courts" to mimic the appearance of authority.

- The World Martial Authority (WMA): Claims authority via an "Aboriginal Consular Court" or "Insula Tribunal".
- Common Law Court & Albion Court of Record: These entities issue "indictments" and "judgments" against public officials.
- Anna von Reitz: Promotes "sovereign declarations" and unrecognised jurisdictions such as the "American State National" movement.
- Why They Fail: To be legitimate, a court must be created by a sovereign state or a treaty between recognized nations (Vienna Convention). None of these "courts" have treaty recognition or international standing; thus, their "warrants" and "judgments" are legally void and considered "paper terrorism".

Group	Court Type / Claim	Legal Status
WMA	Aboriginal Consular Court	Unrecognized; no treaty basis.
Robin Hood	Statutory/Common Law Blend	Fails by attempting to use common law in statutory courts.
Albion Court	Court of Record (Private)	Disregarded by HMCTS and international bodies.
Anna von Reitz	American State National	Claims lack jurisdictional recognition or treaty status.

ECCLESIA LAW

Pseudo-Legal Claim	Legal Reality / Why It Is False
"I am not the person" (the ALL-CAPS name on documents).	Natural persons and artificial persons are distinct legal entities. However, statutory jurisdiction attaches to the artificial person (the "persona") regardless of the natural person's consent.
"If I refuse consent, jurisdiction disappears."	State authority and jurisdiction are based on the rule of law within a territory, not a private contract with the citizen. Statutory courts apply statutory jurisdiction, which cannot be "opted out" of.
Private "Aboriginal" or "Common Law" courts have the power to indict officials.	To be legitimate, a court must be created by a sovereign state or an international treaty (e.g., the Vienna Convention). Private tribunals lack treaty recognition and international standing; their "judgments" are legally void.
UCC filings create a "Global Lien" over the financial system.	The Uniform Commercial Code (UCC) is a set of statutes for commercial sales/private business, not a global constitutional law. A valid lien requires an underlying debt or a judgment from a recognized court; filing one without a basis is considered fraud or "paper terrorism".
"Cashing out" colour copies of documents provides millions in payouts.	The claim that colour copies hold secret monetary value is a pseudo-legal myth. Large-scale payout promises (e.g., £140 trillion) are mathematically and legally impossible as no treasury recognizes these fictitious "credits".
The birth certificate is a contract of enslavement.	A birth certificate is an administrative record used to identify a legal identity for statutory interaction, not a commercial contract. Agency between the human and this identity is presumed by law until rebutted via recognized mechanisms.
Governments are mere "corporations" with no authority.	While governments use corporate structures for administration, their authority over citizens is foundational to the state's sovereignty and is not dependent on a commercial contract.

4. The Financial Side: The "Global Lien" and UCC Myth

The most dangerous aspect of these movements is the claim that the entire financial system has been "liened" using the Uniform Commercial Code (UCC).

- Govinda Tidball's Claim: Tidball filed UCC-1 and UCC-3 documents (e.g., #2025023588, #2025025325) asserting an "irrevocable claim" over all global assets. He claims this "perfects" a record to restore credit to "the living" through a structure called "HONOR AND TRUST".
- The WMA Claim: Asserts a £140 trillion judgment against the UK government, promising citizens £8,333 a month.
- Brandon J. Williams: Promotes DIY templates and "notices" to discharge debts and "reclaim" credit from the system.
- Why This Has No Bearing:
    - Recording vs. Validity: A clerk's office recording a document (as Tidball has done in Travis County) does not make its claims true; it is merely a public notice.
    - Misapplication of the UCC: The UCC is a commercial statute for the sale of goods, not a global governing law that can "lien the world" or discharge criminal/statutory liabilities.
    - Invalid Liens: A lien requires a valid underlying debt or a judgment from a recognized court. Filing a lien "over the world" or based on "birth certificate fraud" without this basis is considered fraud in every jurisdiction.

#	Party Involved	Strategy Attempted	Outcome & Significance
1	Robin Hood Follower	Eviction defense claiming "no contract" with the bank.	Evicted. Court ruled mortgage is a statutory obligation, not a private contract.
2	Common Law Court Adherent	Attempted "arrest" of a local judge for "breach of oath."	Arrested for assault. Private "warrants" are considered criminal threats.
3	Anna von Reitz Follower	Travelling without license plates as a "State National."	Vehicle impounded. Status declarations carry no weight in traffic court.
4	Brandon J. Williams User	Bankruptcy discharge using "Notice and Demand" templates.	Petition dismissed. Ordered to pay $10,000 in sanctions for frivolous filings.
5	WMA Adherent	Attempted to "cash out" a black-and-white copy of a lien.	Rejected by bank. Officials identified the document as legally meaningless.
6	David Harland (WMA)	Land repossession via "Insula Tribunal Order."	Arrested for harassment. Order dismissed as null and void.
7	Marko Reyes (Tidball-style)	Sharing bank login to "activate" a global trust.	Accounts emptied. Victim left with £14,000 in fraudulent debt.
8	Thomas Brigg (von Reitz)	Traffic interdiction with "Declaration of Status."	Sentence issued. Jailed for obstruction; documents called "private paperwork."
9	Nicholas Hearn (Albion)	Indictment of a police officer for a search warrant.	Restraining order. Charged with misuse of postal system and harassment.
10	Jared Linford (Williams)	"Notice and Demand" in bankruptcy proceedings.	Sanctioned $18,000. Bankruptcy dismissed; referred for criminal investigation.
11	Bills of Exchange Adherent	Using a private "Promissory Note" for a mortgage.	Evicted. Bank and court rejected the note as having zero value.
12	Jenkins (UCC-1)	Retaliatory lien against a presiding judge.	Felony conviction. Sentenced for "paper terrorism" and extortion.
13	Robert Kincaid (Redemption)	"Strawman" theory used to stop tax levies.	Wage garnishment. Owed $180,000 in taxes, interest, and penalties.
14	El-Bey (Moorish)	Claiming diplomatic immunity during traffic stop.	Force used. Window smashed, car crushed, and charged with impersonation.
15	WMA Marshals	Commercial squatting via "Aboriginal Title."	Tactical arrest. Prison sentences of 6–18 months for conspiracy.

5. Significant Risks and Warning

Those who participate in these protocols are putting themselves at extreme risk:

- Criminal Prosecution: Enforcing "WMA warrants" or "Aboriginal Court" judgments leads to charges of impersonating a police officer, kidnapping, or assault.
- Financial Ruin: Filing fraudulent UCC liens or DIY templates often leads to massive cost orders, the seizure of personal assets, and being labeled a vexatious litigant.
- The "Filching" Scam: Warning: Reports indicate these groups often use the promise of "abundance" or "payouts" (like the £8,333/month claim) to trick individuals into providing their bank account details and personal data. Once obtained, this information is used for identity theft or further financial exploitation under the guise of "opening trust accounts".

Conclusion

The World Martial Authority, Govinda Tidball, Anna von Reitz, Brandon J. Williams, and similar figures offer a "Matrix escape" that does not exist in law. Their methods are non-operational, lack recognition, and serve only to provoke system retaliation against the participant.
